

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

Terry Diloreto,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 2:20-cv-2385

Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

ORDER

This matter is before the court for consideration of the May 21, 2021, report and recommendation of the United States magistrate judge to whom this case was referred pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §636(b). The magistrate judge concluded that the administrative law judge erred in failing to explain why he did not include certain limitations opined by Kristen Haskins, Psy.D., a state agency psychologist, in plaintiff's residual functional capacity after giving her opinion substantial weight. The magistrate judge recommended that the decision of the Commissioner be reversed and that the case be remanded pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §405(g), sentence four, for further consideration of Dr. Haskins' opinion consistent with the report and recommendation.

The report and recommendation specifically advised the parties that failure to object to the report and recommendation within fourteen days of the report would result in a waiver of the right to have the district judge review the Report and Recommendation de novo and a waiver of the right to appeal the decision of the district court adopting the report and recommendation. Doc. 18, p. 12. The time period for filing objections to the report and recommendation has expired, and no party has objected to the report and recommendation.

The court agrees with the report and recommendation of the magistrate judge (Doc. 18) and it is hereby adopted. The decision of the Commissioner is reversed, and this case is remanded to the Commissioner under 42 U.S.C. §405(g), sentence four, for further consideration of Dr. Haskins' opinion consistent with the report and recommendation. The clerk shall enter judgment reversing the decision of the Commissioner and remanding this case.
